1. The Hel peninsula has been placed off limits to all unauthorized personnel. The peninsula is well equipped with artillery positions, but the caliber of guns is not known to source.
2. Gdynia, Sopot and Orlowo (Q55/Y44) have only one public bathing beach respectively. If anyone attempts to swim outside of the designated area he will be shot at by the sentries.
3. The entire coastal area is enclosed by barbed wire fences and is closely guarded by WOP guards.
4. In connection with the alleged dropping of Western spies into Poland, new coastal restrictions have been put into effect. All new arrivals from the interior must report to the Militia within 24 hours upon arrival. No one is allowed on the seashore except at authorized bathing beaches. The rule applies for daytime as well as nighttime. In addition, no one is allowed to enter the wooded area close to the coast at night.
